* Employees assigned to the Art x Science School for Transformation remain members of the university with which they have concluded their employment contract or to whose office they are assigned as civil servants in accordance with § 125 UG. This also applies to the Head and the Co-Head. The organizational-legal (double) assignment of employees to the Art x Science School for Transformation is carried out by the rectorate of the university with which they have concluded their employment contract or to whose office they are assigned as civil servants in accordance with § 125 UG. The professional and service supervision of the Art x Science School for Transformation is the responsibility of the employer of the respective employee. The rectorate of the university to which the head of the Art x Science School for Transformation belongs to, concludes a target agreement with the director, who in turn concludes a target agreement with the academic and artistic staff employed at the same university as the director. The co-director shall conclude target agreements with those members of the academic or artistic staff who are assigned to the Art x Science School for Transformation and employed at the same university as the co-director.

 In accordance with the statutes, "Diversity, Equity, Inclusion" is to be understood as the "Department for Equality."
